Message from Carmine Rea:

This is my last weekend here in the parishes of Whalley, Langho and Osbaldeston. I would like to thank the parish communities for your warm welcome and generosity. I have learnt a lot from Fr David whilst I have been here; and I would like to thank him for his hospitality, patience, and knowledge. As I leave the parish communities, please be assured that I will remember you in my prayers. Please pray for me, the other students and for more vocations to the priesthood. May God bless you all.

Message from Fr David: I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your kind messages, cards and presents on the occasion of my recent birthday. Please be assured of my thoughts and prayers.

ENGLISH MARTYRS, WHALLEY

Brother printer/copier ink: The printer in the office in Whalley has had to be replaced and we have some ink cartridges from the old printer which we cannot use. We would be happy to pass them on to anyone is still using an older Brother printer for which they are compatible. If you think you may have such a printer, please contact Alison with your model number and she will be able to check the position with the cartridges as they are compatible with more than one model.

Next Week's Second Collections – There will be a Cake Stall and Jam/Marmalade on sale to raise additional funds for our second collections next weekend at both Whalley Masses. Next weekend is the annual collection for the Diocesan Charity CARITAS and we have also been asked to support LEPRA, a charity providing care and support for Leprosy sufferers in India. There will be notices in the porch explaining the work these charities undertake and an option to donate using the Dona machine as well as the usual baskets! Cakes will be on sale before and after the Vigil Mass and after the 11.15 Mass on Sunday. Please support these worthwhile causes.
